Parents, Guardians, and Friends,

David Vail, of Mrs. Willis's Kindergarten class, would like to invite your child to join him at the Inferno Mixed Martial Arts Studio. Together, they will learn to have fun - coupled with dedication, discipline, motivation and respect.

Last night symbolized all that the Inferno studio represents: after a quick introduction and educational session, the coaches worked with the students to establish their goals for the remainder of the school year. They wrote one of those goals on a wooden block. Asked to flip the block over, the students then wrote an obstacle to achieving that goal. The students looked, and pondered over these obstacles, until they were given the word – then, without hesitation, they kicked down there obstacle and broke the board in two! Please feel free to witness the power of this exercise at:

As a father, it is all that I can do to make sure that our son is raised the “right” way; respectful, honest, courageous, humble, confident, and committed to a vision. Many of you have likely heard stories of David's first term at Cooper. In four months, he earned less than 10 green lights; since returning from the Christmas break, he has already received 11 green lights and nothing worse than a yellow. With Mrs. Willis's help, and the support staff that has been put into place, we have found a way for David to succeed; a very large portion of that success must also be attributed to the hard work and dedication that has been put in by the coaches at Inferno.

David has specifically asked that your child be invited to join him for the fun and development that can be found at the studio. There will be a one hour “information session” this weekend, 1pm Saturday, where your child will be allowed to participate. If you are unable to join us then, then we have one more opportunity for you: Super Bowl Sunday, February 1st from 5pm – 10pm, the Inferno studio will be open as a “Parent's Night Out” for the kids to exercise, participate, watch a movie and eat some pizza; simply put, to have some fun! If you anticipate some transportation problems, we would be happy to work with you to get your child to and from.

If you have any questions about joining us this Saturday or on Super Bowl Sunday, please do not hesitate to call me, directly, at 603.557.1979. We look forward to seeing you there!

Respectfully,

PS: What pride would come to you, if your child was to work to finish their weekly homework assignment: “Your homework this week is to practice finishing every sentence with Sir or Ma’am”..? Come join us!?!
